Projects

A Context-Aware AI Agent for Customer Engagement Prediction and Workflow Optimisation
- Developed a context-aware AI system to predict customer purchase intent using XGBoost, Random Forest, and Logistic Regression on the UCI Online Shoppers dataset.
- Engineered behavioral, temporal, and session-based contextual features to improve customer engagement prediction, with XGBoost achieving 89.7 percent test accuracy and 0.924 AUC-ROC.
- A rule-based AI decision layer that converts predicted engagement probability into marketing actions such as personalized discounts, reminder emails, or no intervention

Smart Food Waste Management System
- Developed a cloud-based platform connecting food donors with verified NGOs to reduce food waste.
- Built the backend using Python, Flask, and MySQL, with AWS EC2, RDS, and S3 for cloud deployment and storage.
- Integrated AWS Cognito, Lambda, API Gateway, SNS, and CloudWatch for authentication, automation, APIs, notifications, and monitoring.

Defence Management System
- Developed a centralized Defense Personnel Management System to streamline personnel records, rank management, salary processing, leave tracking, training, postings, medical reports, and disciplinary actions.
- Designed a relational MySQL database with role-based access control and secure authentication mechanisms.
- Built the frontend using React + Vite and integrated it with the MySQL backend for efficient personnel data management.
